

TEACHER'S GUIDE

Primary Source Document Collection

MISSION US: "Prisoner in My Homeland"

Photo of the Forced Removal From Bainbridge Island

On March 30, 1942, military troops arrived on Bainbridge Island to force the removal of all Japanese American residents. A special ferry was docked at the Eagledale dock to transport the residents to Seattle where they were placed on trains and sent to California.

Source: Densho Digital Repository, ddr-densho-34-2 (Legacy UID: denshopd-i34-00002)
Courtesy of the Bainbridge Island Japanese American Community
