Instructions

Take 5 minutes to have students use these questions to reflect on their game play, individually or in small groups.

In a 10-minute discussion, ask students to describe their experiences at Ellis Island and the choices they made. Ask students to share a range of hopes, fears, and challenges that they wrote down.

Encourage students to think about their own hopes, fears, and challenges (e.g., being in a new place with new people, and not knowing how to navigate it. How do these feelings help them understand Lena's experiences?

Additional optional discussion questions:

- How many of you decided to lie at some point on Ellis Island? If so, why?
- Did you fear you would be turned away?
- What might it mean for Lena's family if Lena were turned away?
- How is her family counting on her?
- What is Lena's family hoping for in the U.S. that they don't have in Russia?
