

Prisoner in My Homeland Part 2

Guiding Question: How did Japanese Americans cope with and resist their imprisonment during World War II?

Decision Tracker

Circle one of the values below that you will prioritize as you play Part 2 of Prisoner in My Homeland.

Family Matters

Put the family first and follow your parents' guidance

Seek Independence

Be your own person and pursue your own priorities

Build Community

Cope with your imprisonment by trying to improve living conditions at Manzanar

Support the Government

Support the war effort and prove your loyalty

Question Authority

Question the government's intentions and resist its unjustified programs

As you make decisions as Henry in Part 2, do your best to prioritize the value that you chose. Record and describe at least two decisions you make in the game in which that value is a factor.

What did you do, and why?	How did your decision connect to the value you chose?	What other values, if any, influenced your choice?